A PSHE & Wellbeing Curriculum Resource Bank

A directory of organisations and resources that support the teaching and learning of PSHE and Wellbeing in Primary Schools – March 2019

www.schools.southwark.gov.uk/pshe-healthy-schools
Introduction

This document provides a bank of resources for school and curriculum leaders aiding the delivery of PSHE & Wellbeing Education - an education that is relevant and necessary for today’s learners in the 21st century (see PSHE & Wellbeing Curriculum Framework, V4, March 19). This curriculum is not fixed, it is evolving and ephemeral; it is designed for curriculum leaders and teachers to amend, change and add to, ensuring it matches the real and actual needs of all children and young people (C&YP). It also contributes to your school achieving the Healthy Schools London award.

Our Learning Partnership - www.schools.southwark.gov.uk/pshe-healthy-schools

Thank you specifically to the London Tri-borough for commissioning the basis of this work (led by Health Education Partnership) and sharing its development at key stages with professional colleagues. This Resource Bank would not have been possible without the ongoing support from HEP, The PSHE Association and Go Givers as well as from lead teachers and consultants Melonie Syrett and Freddy Vanson.

All Southwark Healthy Schools have access to free membership to The PSHE Association (March 2019), as well as Silver and Gold Healthy Schools to the Go-Givers web resources. Schools should log on to ensure that they take advantage of these Quality Assured resources. It also contributes to your school achieving the Healthy Schools London award.

Pedagogy & CPD

Best practice is for PSHE to be taught in discrete, well-planned lessons that take account of the learners’ needs; it should be taught at least weekly.

The curriculum should be spiral; revisiting and building on topics and concepts throughout the year and as the pupils progress through the school. It can be cross-curricular when links enable deeper understanding and opportunity to practise learned skills. It should be non-personal and distancing techniques should be employed to enable pupils to feel safe and take risks within lessons.

Southwark’s Healthy School's Partnership provides a comprehensive CPD programme to support your school in delivering excellent PSHE & Wellbeing – to browse and book courses click http://schools.southwark.gov.uk/pshe-healthy-schools

To access up to date educational research and learn more about effective interventions and strategies that do make a positive impact, access the teaching & learning toolkit: http://educationendowmentfoundation.org.uk/toolkit/to olkit-a-z/

Southwark Leading Healthy Schools Champions

The Leading Healthy Schools Champions Group has been developing and implementing evidence based programmes to enhance the lives of pupils within the borough. The current focus (March ’19), on raising self-esteem and active movement, was selected by analysing local data trends. The group aims, through collaborative work and strong leadership in PSHE and Wellbeing Education, to further improve outcomes across the borough through school cluster project work. Resources from the group can be found under the headings Emotional Wellbeing & Mental Health (EWMH) and Physical Education and Sport.
Overview

This PSHE and Wellbeing Curriculum Framework is based upon the PSHE Association’s Programme of Study (Oct 14). The Programme of Study is a guide set out to help you build a PSHE Scheme of Work at your school by covering core and statutory PSHE curriculum content as stipulated by the DfE. The PSHE Association have just launched a new version of our ‘We’ve got it covered’ mapping document to reflect the latest statutory guidance by the DfE (2019). This document outlines how the Programme of Study for PSHE education covers – and goes beyond – the health, relationships and RSE guidance. This programme makes a significant contribution to pupils’ spiritual, moral, social and cultural (SMSC) development and the school’s statutory responsibility to promote pupils’ wellbeing. There are three Core Themes within which there will be broad overlap and flexibility for teaching staff to adapted:

- Core Theme 1: Health and Wellbeing
  - Core Theme 1: Health and Wellbeing (Including emotional intelligence, self-esteem, resilience and DATE – Christopher Winter Project)

- Core Theme 2: Relationships
  - Core Theme 2: Relationships (Including RSE - Christopher Winter Project)

- Core Theme 3: Living in the Wider World
  - Core Theme 3: Living in the wider world (Including, Children’s Rights, Economic Wellbeing and Citizenship Education)

Key Stages 1 and 2: Programme of Study from the PSHE Association.

‘How To’ use this Resource Bank

This Resource Bank is designed to support staff with their teaching. School Leaders and PSHE Co-ordinators should access Quality Assured resources from the PSHE Association, Go-Givers, SEAL and the Christopher Winter Project, using them alongside the PSHE & Wellbeing Curriculum Framework. You will also see a ‘Toolkit’ box with links to lesson resources from ‘Go-Givers’ or the PSHE Association.

The resources are organised into specific headings that link with the National Curriculum Target Links in the PSHE and Wellbeing Curriculum Framework, as well as additional headings. These should be considered before use with the pupils to ensure that they are maturity relevant and support your delivery of the objectives in the framework. Under each heading you will see a list of providers, resources and contact details.

The PSHE Association quality assures the resources it promotes. Southwark schools have free membership to the PSHE Association and are able to access all resources free of charge. www.pshe-association.org.uk

Go-Givers resources are linked to the “Citizenship” elements of this new framework. Go-Givers is an SMSC programme for primary and middle schools. It is an initiative of the Citizenship Foundation, enabling young people to engage in democratic society. They offer a range of lessons for schools based on Citizenship plus assemblies, CPD for staff, planning and assessment support. Visit the website at: http://www.gogivers.org/

All schools in Southwark have free access to the SEAL website: http://www.sealcommunity.org/
Directory of Organisations and Resources that support Teaching & Learning of PSHE & Wellbeing

Bereavement

At any given time up to 70% of schools have a bereaved pupil on their role. One study found that 92% of young people experience a “significant” bereavement before the age of 16. With the right help and support, most of these pupils will not need professional help. What they do need is the understanding of familiar and trusted adults. Schools are well placed to provide this but with some training, the ability to do so will be greatly enhanced.

Child Bereavement UK believes that all families should have access to the support and information they need when a child grieves or when a child dies. Through understanding their grieving process and receiving help in dealing with bereavement from appropriately trained professionals, families can learn to live with their grief and begin rebuilding their lives.

Childhood Bereavement Network - a national federation or organisations offering support and information to bereaved pupils. Their website includes a section for teachers on how to support pupils after experiencing a death, including some resources available to purchase.

Cruse Bereavement Care is a national organisation dedicated to offering support to bereavement families, adults and pupils. Their comprehensive website provides detailed information bereavement, downloadable booklets and information leaflets.

Grief Encounter contains lots of helpful online resources for bereaved pupils and young people, including dedicated ‘kid zones’ and ‘teen zones’. www.griefencounter.org.uk

Winston’s Wish is the leading childhood bereavement charity in the UK. Its website has a dedicated section for schools, providing comprehensive information and resources in supporting bereavement in schools, including reading materials and guidance on how to develop a school bereavement policy.

The Rights Respecting Schools Award puts children’s rights at the heart of schools in the UK.

UNICEF works with schools in the UK to create safe and inspiring places to learn, where children are respected, their talents are nurtured and they are able to thrive. Our Rights Respecting Schools Award embeds these values in daily school life and gives children the best chance to lead happy, healthy lives and to be active citizens.

Using the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) as our guide, we are working with more UK schools than almost any other organisation.

Look for the links in the Curriculum Framework.
Citizenship & British Values

DfE’s guidance: This guidance relates specifically to the requirements to actively promote fundamental British values in schools and explains how this can be met through the general requirement in the 2002 Act. Schools should promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

EU Project: Positive Messengers
This project tackles the issue of hate speech - online hate speech in particular, targeted against migrants, refugees and asylum seekers in the 7 EU countries. It addresses the need for more effective civil society response to online hate speech through sharing and disseminating best practices. The initiative asks pupils to create an image or video clip to share on social media to make the Internet a more welcoming place for all.

https://www.positivemessengers.net/en/

Young Citizens
Young Citizens have developed a range of resources for primary schools with different partners to help schools educate, inspire and motivate their students to become active citizens. Their ‘Go-Givers’ resources support students SMSC learning and help primary-school children become caring, concerned citizens. The MySociety resource helps students to understand our democratic system and other political structures and how they can become involved and affect positive change in their communities.

https://www.youngcitizens.org/

Counter Extremist Narratives
Extremism is not a new topic in education, but schools have a relatively new statutory duty to pay "due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism". In response to this challenging and serious new responsibility, LGfL has worked with leading extremism experts specialising in ISIS and the far right to provide information, insights and advice to help schools navigate this difficult area.

Extreme Dialogue
The Extreme Dialogue educational resources aim to build young people’s resilience to violent extremism through active discussion and enhanced critical thinking, via a series of short emotive films, classroom activities and group exercises that can be used with young people aged approximately 14-18. Their free educational resources consist of a Prezi presentation and a resource pack, and are also intended to increase the confidence of teachers and those working with young people in exploring what can be a difficult but vital and contemporary topic in a safe and constructive way.

Action Against Violence (AVA)
AVA (Action Against Violence) has created the Prevention Platform Toolkit, which is the first comprehensive teaching resource on violence against women and girls (VAWG) that covers the following issues:

- domestic violence
- teenage relationship abuse
- sexual violence
- sexual harassment and bullying
- sexual exploitation
- forced marriage (FM)
- female genital mutilation (FGM)
- honour based violence (HBV)
- sex trafficking prostitution

The toolkit is designed to support education practitioners across the UK to develop and deliver a programme to prevent violence against women and girls. It includes resources for understanding each VAWG issue including e-learning, support for teachers to develop a programme of learning based on prevention which is underpinned by Safeguarding policies and duties. The toolkit also includes lesson plans appropriate for each school year.

Kidscape  www.kidscape.org.uk/
Kidscape is committed to keeping pupils safe from abuse. Kidscape is the first charity in the UK established specifically to prevent bullying and child sexual abuse. Kidscape believes that protecting pupils from harm is key. Kidscape works UK-wide to provide individuals and organisations with practical skills and resources necessary to keep pupils safe from harm. Kidscape staff and trainers equip vulnerable pupils with practical non-threatening knowledge and skills in how to keep themselves safe and reduce the likelihood of future harm. Kidscape works with pupils and young people under the age of 16, their parents/carers, and those who work with them. Kidscape provides:

- A Helpline offering support and advice to parents of bullied pupils.
- Confidence building sessions for pupils who are bullied.
- Advice for Parents & Carers, Professionals and Young People themselves.
- A national comprehensive training programme on child safety and behaviour management issues.
- Booklets, literature, posters, training guides and educational videos on bullying, child protection, and parenting.

The Hideout (Domestic Violence)  “Women’s Aid have created this space to help pupils and young people to understand domestic abuse, and how to take positive action if it’s happening to you.”  www.thehideout.org.uk

Safer Futures is a national project that aims to build networks between local schools, specialist domestic violence services and Local Authorities to ensure that healthy relationships education is delivered responsibly and effectively. The project will train a nationwide network of domestic violence professionals to work as Women’s Aid Schools Advocates to provide in-school support for teachers to deliver lessons using the Expect Respect Education Toolkit.

Eating Disorders

The PSHE Association has produced guidance on teaching about body image as part of the PSHE curriculum.
https://www.pshe-association.org.uk/curriculum-and-resources/resources/key-standards-teaching-about-body-image

The notes/resources provided deliberately do not spell out details of “eating disorders.” An eating disorder is usually a symptom of an underlying psychological problem. You are teachers, not psychologist, psychotherapists or psychiatrists. It is therefore suggested that ‘eating disorders’ should be mentioned as part of an appropriate PSHE lesson – but that you do NOT deliver a lesson about them per se.

The three commonest disorders are:

- Anorexia - an obsessive desire to lose weight or stay thin by not eating.
- Bulimia - eating a large quantity of food and then inducing vomiting or using large numbers of laxatives to get rid of it.
- Binge (or Compulsive) eating is Bulimia without the purging and vomiting - which results in rapid weight gain.

It’s hard to understand what happens but people develop these disorders when they have deep emotional issues, together with very low self-esteem and a loss of sense of control. You can’t fix their problems but you can empower people by being there for them, by listening to them tell you how they feel. Some young people have reported feeling judged by their teachers and therefore discounted them as a source of help. Eating disorders may become life threatening, the sooner the person gets some professional help, the sooner he/she will recover. Suggest the person concerned speaks to someone like the school nurse or counselor.

Emotional Wellbeing & Mental Health (EWMH)

Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence

Anna Freud – Schools in Mind is a free network for school staff and allied professionals which shares academic and clinical expertise regarding the wellbeing and mental health issues that affect schools. The network provides a source of up-to-date and accessible information and resources that school leaders, teachers and support staff can use to support the mental health and wellbeing of the children and young people in their care. All of their materials are evidence based and have been evaluated in schools. By signing up to the network education professionals can access a range of events, resources, training and consultation. https://www.annafreud.org/what-we-do/schools-in-mind/

Charlie Waller Memorial Trust – their vision is of a world where people understand and talk openly about depression, where young people know how to maintain wellbeing, and where the most appropriate treatment is available to everyone who needs it. There are a range of resources available on the website including webinars for schools, booklets on depression, information about asking for help and more. https://www.cwmt.org.uk/resources

Mentally Healthy Schools brings together quality-assured information, advice and resources to help primary schools understand and promote children’s mental health and wellbeing. Their aim is to increase staff awareness, knowledge and confidence to help support your pupils. The site contains a comprehensive range of resources. https://www.mentallyhealthyschools.org.uk/

National Pupils’ Bureau (NCB) - Advice covering two overlapping areas of school practice is provided by NCB: promoting positive social and emotional wellbeing for all in schools, and tackling the mental health problems of pupils in more serious difficulty. It is designed to support schools, in particular, school leaders, in the delivery of their work on these two areas. https://www.ncb.org.uk/news-opinion/news-highlights/best-practice-framework-help-schools-promote-social-and-emotional-well

RULER is an evidence-based approach for integrating social and emotional learning into schools, developed at the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence. RULER applies “hard science” to the teaching of what have historically been called “soft skills.” RULER teaches the skills of emotional intelligence — those associated with Recognizing, Understanding, Labelling, Expressing, and Regulating emotion. Decades of research show that these skills are essential to effective teaching and learning, sound decision making, physical and mental health, and success in school and beyond. http://ei.yale.edu/ruler/
Samaritans

DEAL (Developing Emotional Awareness and Listening) teaching resources

- Samaritans’ teaching resources help schools develop the skills that young people need to cope with life’s challenges. DEAL (Developing Emotional Awareness and Listening) aims to:
  - raise awareness of emotional health and the importance of recognising when you need help
  - develop positive coping strategies
  - reduce stigma and break down barriers around talking about emotional health.
  - developing communication skills
  - developing supportive and help-seeking behaviour in young people

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM)

It is essential that schools raise awareness of the facts and issues around FGM. Including providing information on how and where to get help. In order to inform and facilitate the exploration of attitudes around FGM, it is important for young men as well as young women to take part in these lessons.

A lesson plan covering this topic for Key Stage 3 may be found at: http://www.healthyschools-london.org.uk/sites/default/files/KS3_FGM_LESSON_BOOKLET_RGB_260213.pdf

Forward UK - FORWARD’s Schools Programme offers a comprehensive and wide range of services for schools. All of their schools services are delivered in a sensitive and age appropriate way by experienced FORWARD facilitators. Their schools services are flexible and tailored to meet the needs of each school and target audience. FORWARD believes that schools play a vital role in protecting and supporting girls at risk of or affected by FGM. They also believe that young people should be engaged and empowered to know about issues that affect them, their peers and their communities. Work with schools is focused not only on awareness but also the role that everyone can play in supporting girls and ending the practice. Pupils are equipped to be able to support themselves, their peers and their siblings who may be at risk of or affected by FGM. http://www.forwarduk.org.uk/what-we-do/uk-programmes/schools-programme/

Pornography, Grooming and Online Safety

In a survey carried out by independent market research organisation Research Now, on behalf of NAHT (National Association of Head Teachers), the vast majority of parents (88 per cent) said sex education and lessons on adult and peer relationships should be mandatory in schools. More than four in five parents want schools to include issues surrounding the dangers of pornography as part of sex education. 83 per cent had sufficient confidence in schools’ ability to help their pupils understand the dangers specifically associated with pornography that they believed teachers were as important as parents in handling the issue. The Sex Education Forum who represent a group of organisations and individuals committed to improving sex and relationships education (SRE) for pupils and young people have produced a magazine information to help teachers work with this issue:

The resources “All inclusive” and “Faith in Us” also address challenging issues like discrimination against disabled students and Islamophobia. You can access a range of different lesson plans, activity sheets and presentations for lessons and assemblies.

Be Internet Legends
The Be Internet Legends curriculum is a free internet safety educational resource for pupils aged 7-11 years-old. It includes PSHE accredited lesson plans and activities delivering important internet safety messages and developing pupils digital literacy skills. With an interactive game called Interland to support fun and engaging ways to learn, the Be Internet Legends programme is a great internet safety resource for your school that offers a fun and comprehensive way for your students to learn and build resilience.
Young Citizens
Young Citizens have developed a range of resources for primary schools with different partners to help schools educate, inspire and motivate their students to become active citizens. Their ‘Go-Givers’ resources support students SMSC learning and help primary-school children become caring, concerned citizens. The MySociety resource helps students to understand our democratic system and other political structures and how they can become involved and affect positive change in their communities.

Kidspace - Separation
Kidspace focuses on helping pupils and young people understand their feelings and learn how to manage them as well as help pupils cope, and adjust to the changes in their family. They conditionally offer a confidential space for the child/young person to work through their feelings and express the impact the separation of their family is having on them. http://akidspace.co.uk/

Young Minds - The Resilient Classroom
There are many school resilience programmes, which aim to narrow the gap between pupils who do well academically and those who don't. A lot of them are very useful, so why have we put this information together? Resilience programmes can be expensive - we wanted to offer something everyone could access for free. Pupils who experience multiple disadvantages face greater challenges in school than most so we need a programme that really helps them. Academic Resilience supports schools to step up the things they do so there is greater impact on the achievements of their most vulnerable or disadvantaged pupils. http://www.youngminds.org.uk/training_services/academic_resilience/what_is_academic_resilience

Saving Londoners Lives (SLL) is a partnership project aiming to increase the number of people in the capital with emergency life support (ELS) skills. ELS is the set of actions needed to keep someone alive until professional help arrives. Whether someone has had a heart attack, is choking or bleeding, the prompt action of a bystander can make the difference between life and death. It is never too early to start learning ELS. School is an ideal environment in which to learn ELS within the existing curriculum. The ELS programme can be carefully tailored to the individual requirements of each school, and enables schools to establish flexible delivery of ELS skills to their pupils. Teachers and other school staff receive free instructor training in ELS from St John Ambulance equipping them to deliver the British Heart Foundation’s (BHF) Heartstart UK programme to their pupils. www.savinglondonerslives.org.uk

SACRE - The Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education
Every Local Authority (LA) is required by law to have a SACRE. Its origins go back to the Education Act of 1944, but the Education Reform Act 1988 and the Education Act 1996 strengthened its place in LAs. The responsibilities of SACRE are:

- to provide advice to the LA on Collective Worship in its schools (this does not include Voluntary Aided or Voluntary Controlled Schools)
- to consider any requests from Head teachers to hold Collective Worship that is not of a broadly Christian character

At the time of writing (March '18) the Religious Education syllabus for Southwark was under review but is to be available soon.
